ASPC-Tucson Cimarron Unit attempted escape stopped

Tucson, Az - At approximately 8:40 a.m. inmate Jimmy Odom, #186404, assaulted a contract employee and stole a delivery truck. He then drove through the Unit's interior fence and was stopped by the Unit's perimeter fence. A Correctional Officer immediately restrained inmate Odom.

Beyond the Cimarron perimeter is the Complex's double-perimeter fence that is patrolled by armed officers.

Inmate Odom, #186404, sentenced out of Coconino County is serving a Life sentence for 1st Degree Murder, Burglary, Armed Robbery and Kidnapping convictions.

The Unit remains locked down and the incident is under investigation by the Department.
